

Church Planting Coaching Contract

Introduction

Part of the strategy to give our church plants the best possible chance of success is to provide a coach for each planter. Coaches will be appointed by the Church Planting Ministry Team Leader in consultation with the planter and sponsoring church. Generally, coaches will be selected from the Church Planting Ministry Team or the sponsoring local church.

Coaching Contract

This coaching contract is intended to facilitate a relationship where the planter and the coach contract to meet on a regular basis to discuss current challenges and strategies which affect the life and growth of the new plant.

This coaching relationship is to be reviewed annually and will remain in place until such time as the plant becomes an affiliated member church of Churches of Christ.
